

Hollyhock is Handmade

Quilled Snowflake Ornament

Intended for ages 10+

Objective:

The goal of this project is to help you create a beautiful yet inexpensive handmade ornament that you will be proud to give as a gift.

Time:

Allow 2-3 hours so that you or your child don't feel rushed. This can be a tedious process so you may want to do this over the course of 2 evenings. It should be enjoyable and allow your child to learn a new craft that they can share.

Description of Shapes:

Hearts - formed by folding strip of paper in half and then rolling the ends toward the middle to make the shape of a heart.

Teardrops - formed by rolling strip of paper into circle, gluing and then pinching one end to form the shape of a teardrop.

S Scroll - formed by rolling the ends of strip of paper in opposite directions to form the shape of an "S".

Supplies Needed:

- ★ White Acrylic Paint
- ★ Toothpicks
- ★ Craft Glue
- ★ 1/8" Wide White Quilling Paper (JoAnns or Hobby Lobby)
- ★ Fishing Line (may substitute ribbon or yarn if that is what you have on hand)

Step One

Let's Begin:

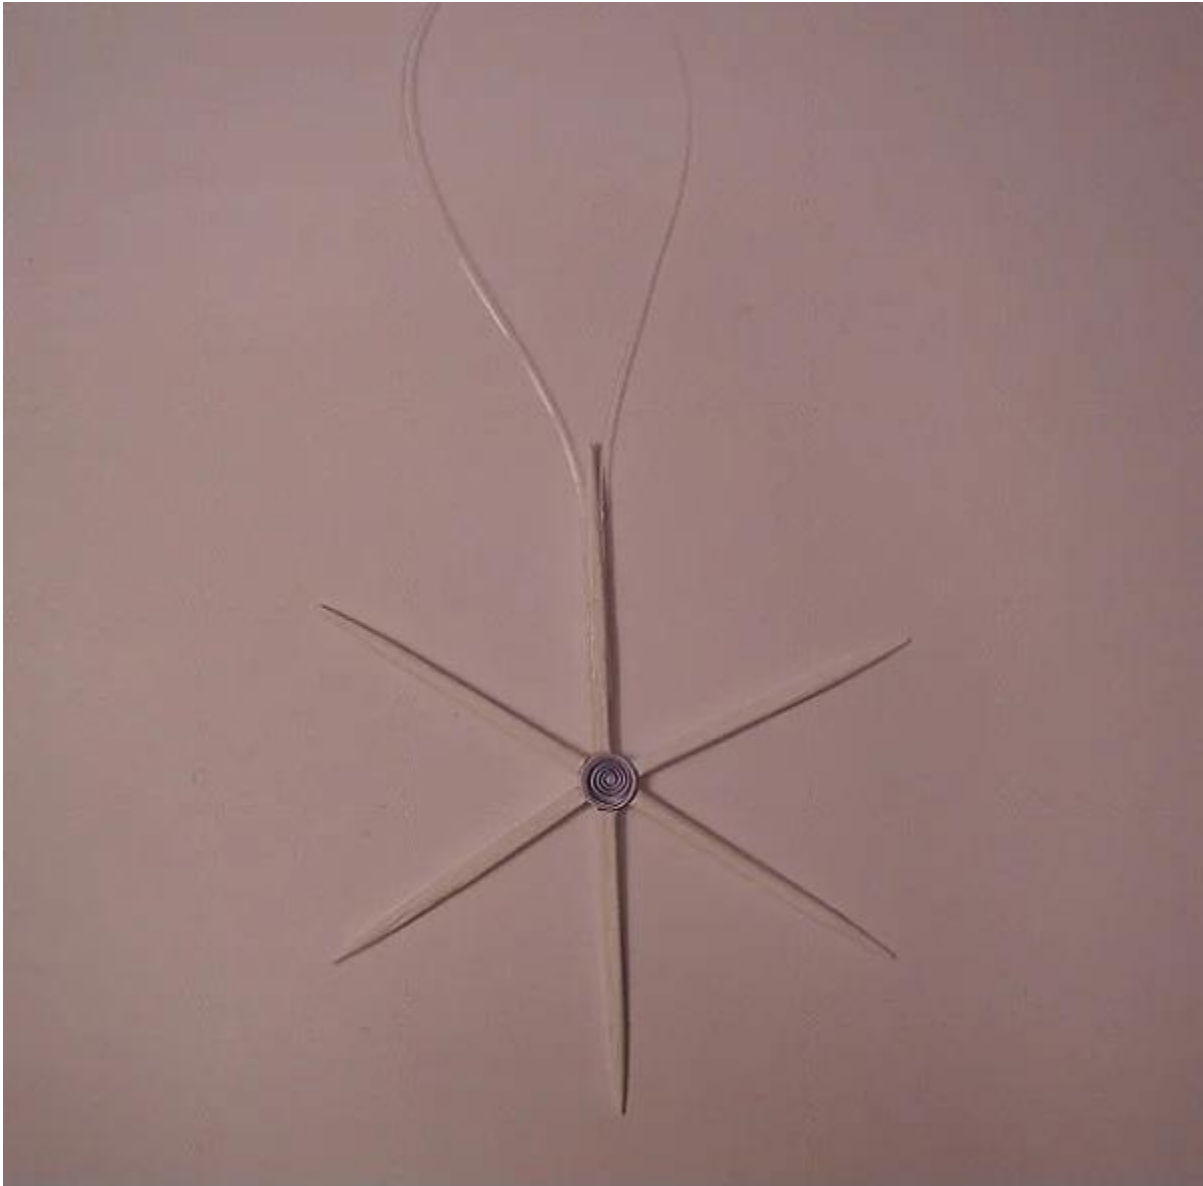

1. Cut 34 pieces of quilling paper into 4" long strips.
2. Paint 6 toothpicks. Let Dry.
3. Clip toothpicks to 1.5" in length.
4. Cut 8" piece of fishing line (for hanger).

Step Two

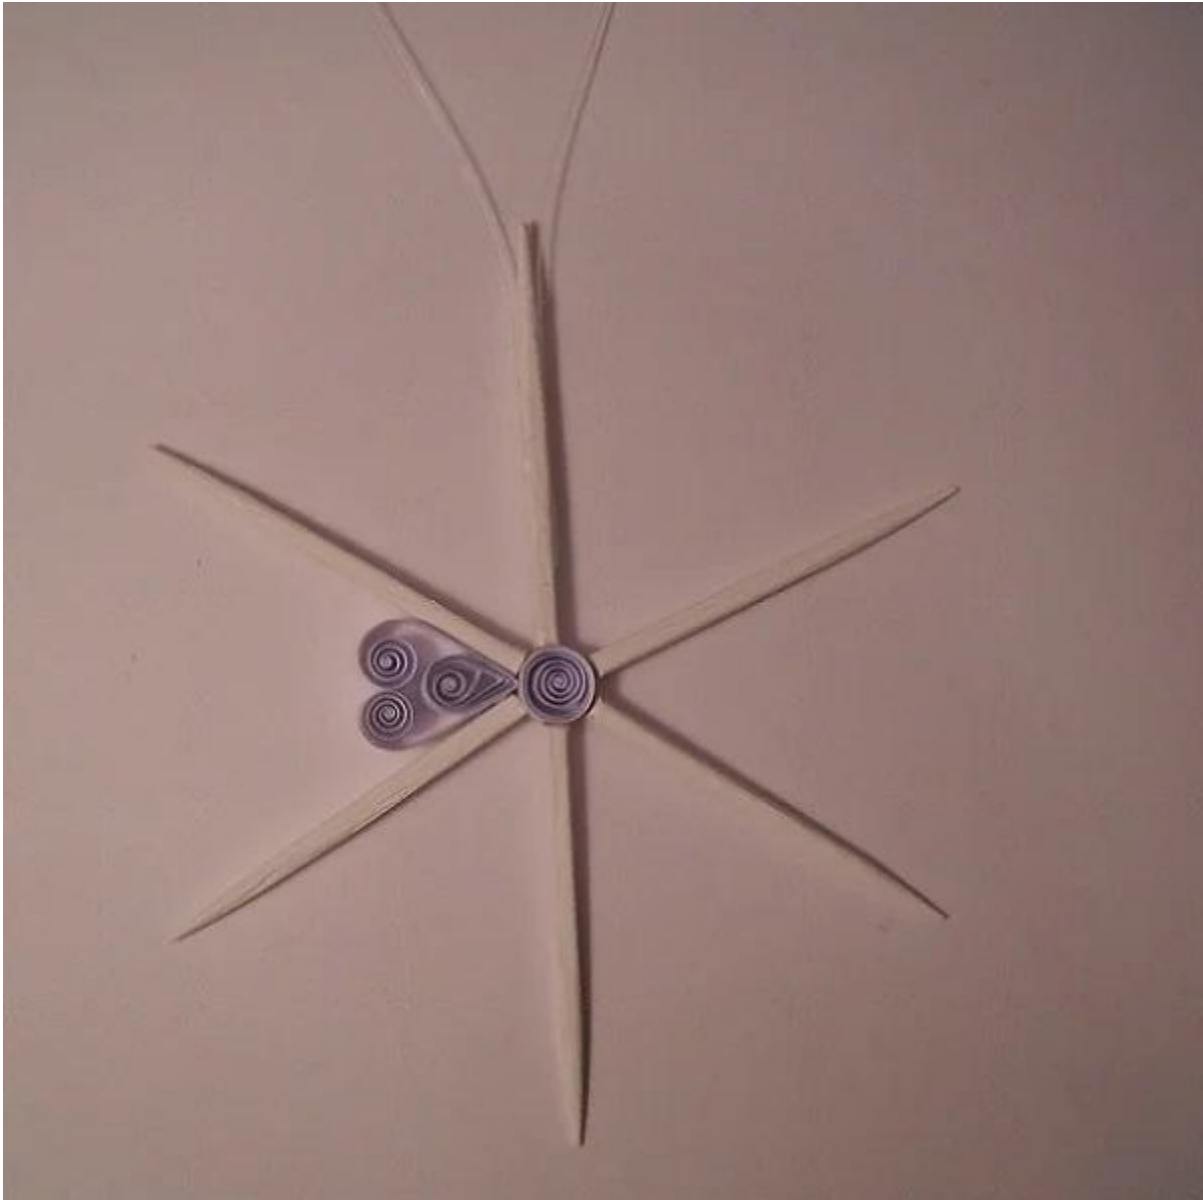

Roll one strip of paper into a circle that is 1/4" in diameter.

Step Three

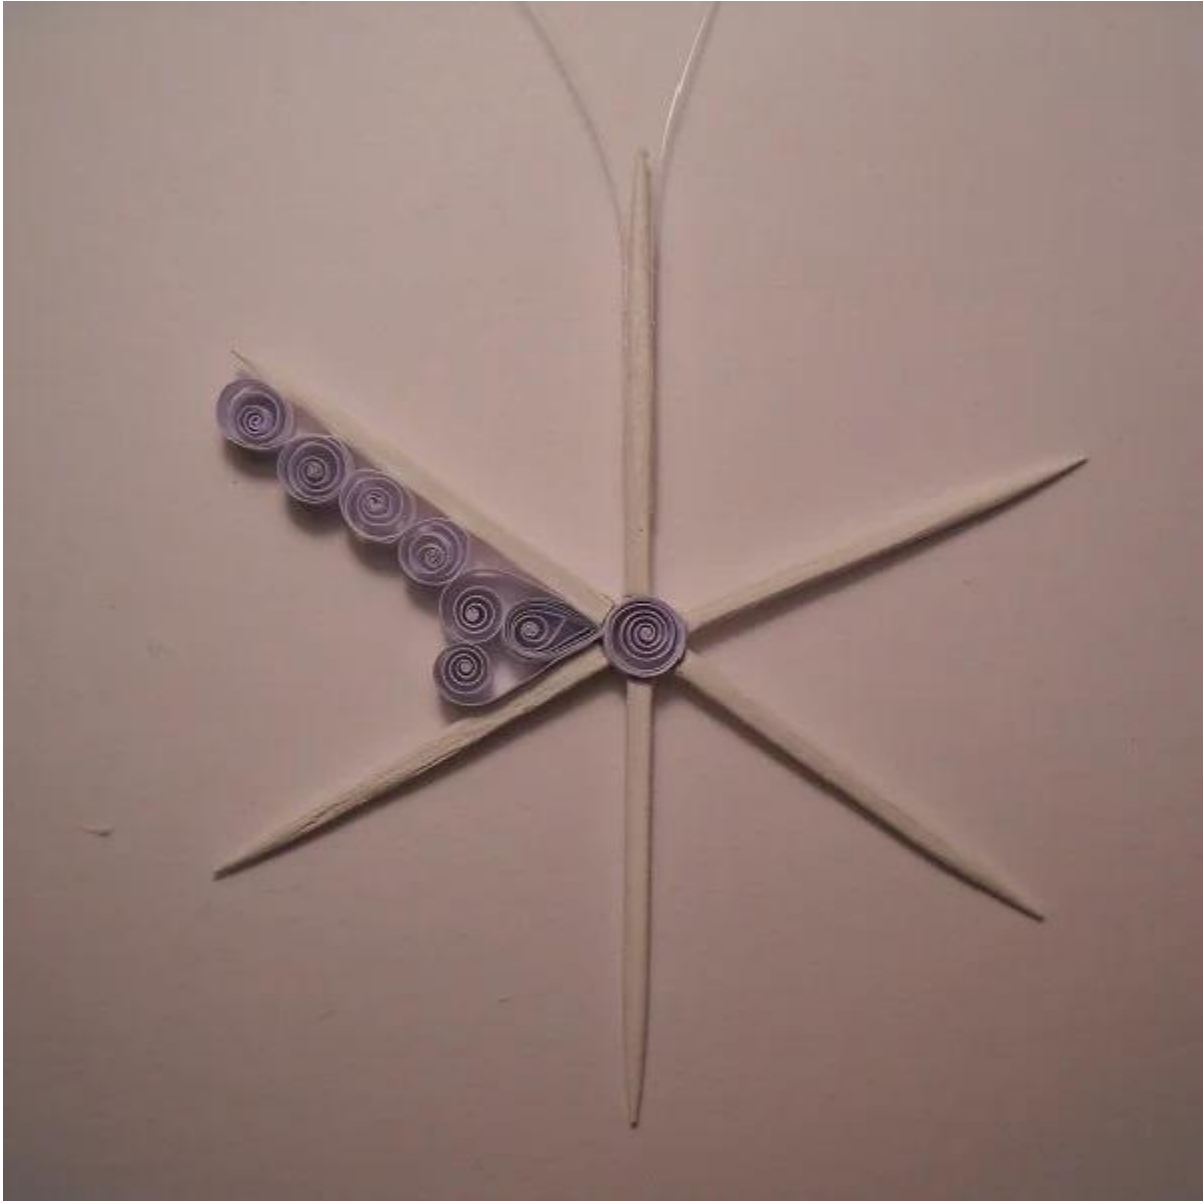

Glue fishing line to opposite sides of one toothpick to form hanger for ornament then glue toothpicks to center circle equidistant apart.

Step Four

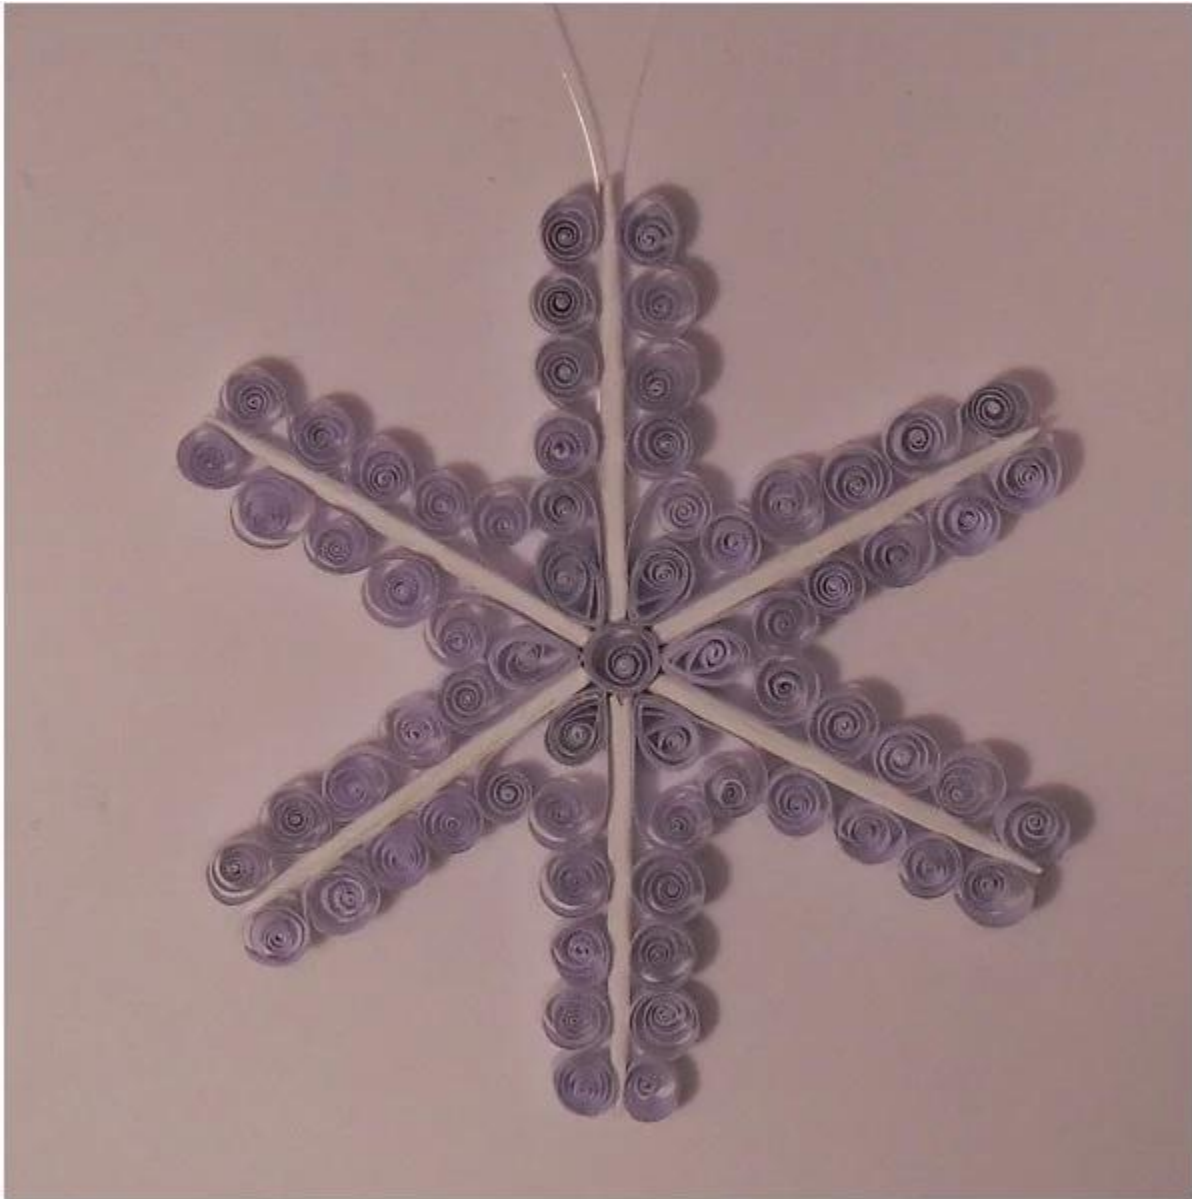

Make and glue 6 teardrops in middle of hearts. Glue heart/teardrop piece between toothpicks.

Step Five

Make 24 S scrolls and glue to either side of each toothpick

Step Six

Finished Snowflake.

Please Note: this ornament should be relatively sturdy but is still made of paper so keep that in mind when storing.
